

OBITUARY—MRS. A. W. LUETH

Mrs. Carolina Horn Lueth was born January 6, 1858, in Berendorf, Holstein, Germany, and died December 1, 1937, at her home in Emerson, following a brief illness, at the age of 79 years, 11 months and five days. She was baptized in infancy and during young womanhood was confirmed in the Evangelical Lutheran church in her native land.

She was united in marriage to Andreas W. Lueth in Luetzenburg, Germany, on June 18, 1882. Two days later they left on a voyage which brought them to the United States, where they established their first residence at Mineola, Ia. They came to this community in 1892, locating on a farm northwest of Emerson. In 1919 they retired from the farm and purchased a home in Emerson, where they had resided ever since.

Surviving are her husband, A. W. Lueth; six daughters, Mrs. Mathilda Laase of Neligh, Mrs. Elizabeth Paulsen and Martha Lueth of Sioux City, Mrs. Marie Utemark of Wakefield, Mrs. Caroline Carlson of Laurel and Mrs. Anna Dahms of Emerson, and three sons, Wm. F. Lueth of Sioux City and Henry C. and Charles A. Lueth of Emerson. Twenty-one grand children and four great grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 1:30 in the home and at 2:00 o'clock in St. Paul's Lutheran church. Rev. Hugo Welchert, pastor, officiated. St. Paul's choir was in charge of the music. Pallbearers were five grandsons, Eugene and Stanley Utemark of Wakefield, Elmer and Robert Lueth and Wayne Dahms of Emerson, and a cousin, Chris Voss of Glenwood, Ia. Interment was made in Rose Hill cemetery, directed by R. F. Demme Funeral Home.

Those from out of town attending the services were Mrs. Anna Horn, Henry and Elmer, of Burke, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vohs and Helen, and Chris Vohs of Glenwood, Ia.; Henry Laase of Neligh, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lueth, Mrs. Hazel Wright and Mrs. Zella Amick, all of Sioux City.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all who so kindly assisted and for the words of sympathy and kindness extended to us in our bereavement.

OBITUARY—A. W. Lueth

Andreas William Lueth was born October 10, 1852, in Berendorf, Holstein, Germany, and died in Emerson on December 1, 1938, at the age of 86 years, 1 month and 20 days.

Until a few months ago, Mr. Lueth had been in comparatively good health, in spite of his advanced age. Then a heart ailment began to give him trouble, which, after a period of treatment and rest permitted him to be about his home. During the night of November 25, he suffered a fall on the stairs of his home, in which he received a fractured arm. He suffered a severe relapse of his heart ailment and he passed away quietly at 2:30 last Thursday morning, exactly a year after the death of his wife.

Mr. Lueth grew to young manhood in his native Germany. He was united in marriage to Carolina Horn in Luetzenburg, Germany, on June 18, 1882. Two days later they left on a voyage which brought them to the United States, where they established their first residence at Mineola, Ia. They came to this community in 1892, locating on a farm northwest of Emerson. In 1919 they retired from the farm and purchased a home in Emerson, where they lived until death removed two more pioneers from the community. Since the death of his wife a year ago, Mr. Lueth had been living alone.

Survivors include six daughters: Mrs. Mathilda Laase of Neligh, Mrs. Elizabeth Paulsen and Miss Martha Lueth of Sioux City, Mrs. Marie Utemark of Wakefield, Mrs. Caroline Carlson of Laurel, and Mrs. Anna Dahms of Emerson; three sons: Wm. F. Lueth of Sioux City, and Henry C. and Charles A. Lueth of Emerson; 21 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Dec. 3, at 1:30 p. m. in the home and at 2:00 p. m. in St. Paul's Lutheran church, with Rev. Hugo Welchert officiating. Werner, Esther and Hedwig Welchert sang Jesus Lover Of My Soul, and Some Day.

Pallbearers were five grandsons: Elmer and Robert Lueth, Eugene and Stanley Utemark, and Wayne Dahms; and Chris Vohs of Glenwood, Ia.

Interment was made in Rose Hill cemetery under direction of the R. F. Demme Funeral Home.

Among those from out-of-town attending the funeral were: Henry Laase and Fred Nutterman of Neligh, Henry Vohs, Andrew Vohs and Chris Vohs of Glenwood, Ia.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to Rev. Hugo Welchert for his comforting message; to Hedwig, Werner and Esther Welchert for their music, and to all who so kindly assisted and for the words of
